LALIBELA

A WORLD HERITAGE OF FAITH, ART AND HUMAN SPIRIT

In the 12th century, King Lalibela and the people of Ethiopia carved eleven magnificent churches out of a single rock, creating a holy city of faith, unity and extraordinary artistry.

These rock-hewn churches, including the iconic Church of St. George, are symbols of devotion, vision and the enduring strength of the Ethiopian people.

FAITH

Carved from one stone, Lalibela represents a deep and unwavering devotion.

ART

Its precise architecture and intricate crosses show the extraordinary creativity and spiritual artistry of the Ethiopian people.

HUMAN SPIRIT

Lalibela stands as a testament to unity, resilience and a shared vision — a place where faith, culture and humanity are beautifully connected.

THE CROSS

Represents faith that reaches all people — in every direction across the world.

THE CIRCLE

Symbolizes the spread of faith, creating unity beyond borders, connecting humanity as one.

THE STRENGTH OF STONE

Stone is one of the hardest elements on earth, representing a strong faith and belief that can endure any struggle, challenge and stay for generations to come.

A TIMELESS HERITAGE

The rock-hewn churches of Lalibela reflect Ethiopia's rich cultural identity and enduring legacy — a testament to faith, craftsmanship and the power of unity.

A PARTNERSHIP THAT PRESERVES HISTORY

France has been a key partner to Ethiopia through major funding and scientific operations to restore and protect the 13th-century rock-hewn churches of Lalibela. This collaboration preserves a global heritage — a symbol of faith and unity that belongs to all humanity.
